

TLID2010A Operate a forklift truck Forklift Driver Refresher

Who is this course for?

Refresher courses are designed to ensure safe work practises are occurring in your workplace. Refresher training all licensed operators is the most cost effective and convenient way of complying with all of your 'Duty of Care' responsibilities in regards to training.

About the course

This course helps maintain safe work practices in your workplace. On completion of the training/evaluation a individual report can be submitted for each operator. This report will highlight all deficiencies each individual operator may have, and areas where improvement is needed.

Who is this course for?

Forklift Refresher Courses are a must for any safety conscious organisation who wants to keep their workers up to date. Like any other machinery used in your workplace as you update your equipment you should also provide refresher training for your operators.

Licensing, Legislative, Regulatory Considerations

All licensed Forklift operators should undergo regular refresher training. Why? It keeps them informed of all the new changes regarding updated regulations and site safety whilst also helping to re-enforce and correct poor driving and working routines.

This is the most cost effective way of supporting your Duty of Care Responsibilities regarding training, all operators attending our courses will be updated on all the new and most current Workcover legislation implemented since their original licence testing.

How much does the course cost?

The full cost of the course is $275.

Group Discounts are Available.

 Prices may vary depending on location.*
